

Candidate suggested reviewers for Political Science candidate Joe Candidate, Ph.D.

| |
|--|
| |
|--|

| Letter | Name, Academic Title & Current Institution | Description of expertise & qualifications (note relationship to candidate, if any) | Response |
|----------|--|---|----------------------------------|
| A | George Bush, Ph.D. Professor of Political Science Rice University | Dr. Bush's research expertise is primarily in the areas of state politics and judicial decision making; he is currently studying strategic behavior on state supreme courts. Dissertation advisor to Dr. Candidate. | No response |
| B | William Clinton, Ph.D. Professor of Political Science University of South Carolina | Dr. Clinton's research focuses on public administration, specifically state and local budgeting practices. His recent publications include "Court Budgeting in the South Carolina: Is Judicial Independence in Harms Way?" Publisher Company Review , 2001. Co-Author with Dr. Candidate | Letter received |
| C | Ronald Reagan, Ph.D. Distinguished University Professor of Political Science Washington University | Dr. Reagan's research interests are in the fields of courts and judicial politics. Among his recent research publications is "The Supreme Court" Oxford University Press, 2003. Harvard University Colleague of Dr. Candidate. | Unable to assist |
| D | Jimmy Carter, Ph.D. Professor of Political Science Michigan State University | Dr. Carter's research specialty is judicial behavior in American appellate courts. Recent publications include "Challenges in state supreme court elections. Political Research Weekly 2001). Mentor to Dr. Candidate. | Time restraints unable to assist |
| G | Gerald Ford, Ph.D. Professor of Political Science University of Arizona | Dr. Ford's research interests are in the area of American state political institutions, and public policy. His recent publications include Judicial Review in the Supreme Court , New York University Press, 2002). Dr. Candidate was a research assistant under Dr. Ford. | Letter received |