

Gene Crumley, Th.D.

Assistant to the Vice Provost
Academic Professional Development
Office of the Vice Provost-Academic Affairs
University of California, Davis

Bio—

Gene Crumley has been at UC Davis since 1996 and has served in a number of positions, including Director of Leadership Development at both the UC Davis School of Medicine and the School of Veterinary Medicine until his retirement in 2017. Since his retirement he has served in part-time positions with the medical school and most recently as a special assistant to the Vice Provost for Academic Affairs, in the area of faculty professional development.